PROF. N.R. MADHAVA MENON ONE WEEK REFRESHER COURSE FOR LAW
TEACHERS ON CURRICULUM DEVELOPMENT AND PEDAGOGY FOR TEACHING COMMERCIAL AND BUSINESS LAWS IN THE ERA OF GLOBALIZATION

Prof. N.R. Madhava Menon was instrumental in transforming legal education to justice oriented and socially relevant legal education in India. He envisioned a more robust legal education model wherein students of law are taught theory and professional skills integral to legal profession. He dedicated his life towards human resource development for improving the dispensation of justice in India. MNLU, Nagpur in its tribute to this legend has established a research and advocacy Centre to take his legacy ahead. The Centre is organizing this course to assist young law teachers to cope up with the emerging challenges in teaching commercial and business law in the era of liberalization, privatization and globalization.

ABOUT THE REFRESHER COURSE

Commercial and Business laws serve as the backbone of a stable economic system, progress of industrialization and employment generation, establishing a fair market all contributing towards the prosperity of the nation. Especially in the era of liberalization and privatization these areas have received central attention. As an impact of these Commercial and Business laws have seen rapid transformation and internalization. Accordingly, the curriculum, content and pedagogy for teaching Commercial and Business laws have undergone a radical transformation in recent time. This refresher course has been planned to update the domain expertise, technical knowledge, curricular challenges and pedagogical innovation for commercial and business law faculties in law school. The range of issues that this refresher course aims to cover will include new legal developments in this field, how to improve the existing curriculums, skills training for students, corporate dispute resolution and preparing students to transnational practice.

ABOUT MAHARASHTRA NATIONAL LAW UNIVERSITY, NAGPUR

Maharashtra National Law University, Nagpur, an Institution with a students' centric outlook, was established by the Government of Maharashtra in 2016. The University is in its Fourth year of academic pursuits with four batches of undergraduate degree course; Fourth batch of postgraduate degree program; and first batch of Ph.D. Scholars. The University is pursuing excellence in legal and justice education under the dynamic leadership of Hon'ble Shri Justice S.A. Bobde, Judge, Supreme Court of India and the Chancellor of the University. The University is recognized by University Grants Commission (UGC) and the Bar Council of India (BCI), New Delhi. It is also a member of Association of Indian Universities (AIU) and Consortium of National Law Universities of India.

The authorities of the University are making all possible efforts to bring up state-of-the-art facilities at the University. The University currently has a small but competent faculty, whose members are highly committed and dedicated to the cause of advancement of social justice. It is enriched by the unflinching support provided by eminent members of the Judiciary and Government, whose active participation in academic matters bears a distinctive feature and constant inspiration to the pursuit of excellence.

N.R. MADHAVA MENON CENTRE FOR CLINICAL AND CONTINUING LEGAL EDUCATION

- Maharashtra National Law University, Nagpur, has established several Centres for advanced legal studies and research to address the socio-legal issues and challenges and to conduct cutting edge research on thriving issues of law, social sciences and humanities. These centres are independent in conception and operation, yet integrated through programmes of teaching, research and extension activities.
- The N.R. Madhava Menon Centre for Clinical and Continuing Legal Education has been established in 2019 to promote socially relevant legal education by undertaking specialized training and dissemination of knowledge for law teachers in innovative pedagogy, specialized areas of law, ADR methods and subjects that address the legal needs of contemporary India. The Centre also aims to undertake training of young lawyers to hone their advocacy skills and imparting values of professional responsibility. It further aims to cultivate comparative and empirical research to map various best practices fundamental to promotion of legal education in India. The Centre plans to forge institutional collaboration and create a platform for sharing of knowledge and exchange of ideas among the major stakeholders in justice system, increase visibility and enhance cooperation between institutions and persons working in these fields at national and global level.
