1. INTRODUCTION

The Annual Report was prepared by the Executive Council of the University regarding the working of the University in pursuance of Section 37 of the Maharashtra National Law University Act, 2014 for presentation before the General Council of the University for its consideration and approval as required by Section 14(3) of the Maharashtra National Law University Act, 2014. The period covered in this report is from April 1, 2021 to March 31, 2022.

The University commenced its academic session for the odd Semesters on June 16, 2021, for Semesters III, V, VII of B.A.LL.B.(Hons.) Five-Year Integrated Degree Course and classes for Semester-I of Undergraduate and Postgraduate Degree Courses on August 17, 2022. The End-Semester Examinations of Even Semester were conducted during April 25, 2021 to May 01, 2021 for B.A.LL.B.(Hons.) Five-Year Integrated Degree Course and during June 1-10, 2021, for B.A.LL.B.(Honours for Adjudication and Justicing) Five-Year Degree Course.

The End-Semester Examinations of Odd Semester for B.A.LL.B.(Hons.) Five-Year Integrated Degree Course were conducted during November 21-28, 2021 except for 2021-26 batch, for which it was conducted during December 18-26, 2021. The End-Semester Examinations of Odd Semester for B.A.LL.B.(Honours for Adjudication and Justicing) Five-Year Degree Course were conducted during November 21-29, 2021 and December 18-26, 2021 for second year and the first year batch, respectively.

The University opened for physical classes for Undergraduate Batch of 2017 on February 14, 2022 and for Undergraduate Batches of 2018 and 2019 on March 4, 2022.

Bar Council of India (BCI) conducted virtual inspection of the University on July 15, 2021 and renewed the approval of B.A.LL.B.(Hons.) Five-Year Integrated Degree Course and accorded fresh approval for B.A.LL.B.(Honours in Adjudication and Justicing) Five-Year Degree Course vide letter no. BCI: D:1146:2021 (LE/Std. 11th and 12th Sep, 21 dated September 20, 2021).

9.7 Mental Health and Wellness

Objectives:

- To ensure that students are taking care of their mental health and emotional wellbeing.
- To undertake initiatives - physical and virtual - in an attempt to educate and raise awareness regarding the significance of mental health.
- To facilitate smooth transition of students from virtual to physical mode by ensuring accessibility.

Mission:

To create an environment that helps destigmatise and unlearn pre-conceived notions around mental health amongst students of the University. To meet the above-mentioned objectives set out during the virtual and later hybrid mode commencing from March, 2022 in an attempt to increase the accessibility of help with respect to mental health, the following activities were undertaken to ensure upkeep of mental health and morale. The main purpose of the various initiatives undertaken was to creating a conducive environment for connecting and engaging with students to tackle various challenges posed by the COVID-19 pandemic and allied aspects of concerns.

Various studies undertaken in an attempt to statistically understand the scale of impact that the pandemic has imposed on individuals have deduced that it has roughly doubled the risk of mental health symptoms and loneliness.

Areas of help covered through virtual platforms and physical mode of counselling (Mental Health Camp and Hostel Counselling) include but are not limited to:

- Anxiety
- Depressive episodes
- Adjusting with parents, travel restrictions, physical mode of education.
- Suicidal Ideation
- Adjustment to online mode of learning.
- Loneliness

Induction of Volunteers and Group Leaders

For effective communication of the activities undertaken by the Mental Health Army as well as acting as point of contact, Group Leaders and Volunteers were inducted considering their skill set, interests and willingness to learn and contribute to the operations.

Since the Founding Members and subsequent team leads deemed it appropriate to transfer their responsibilities to the upcoming batches of Maharashtra National Law University, Nagpur, the Group Leaders were mentored by them and guided by the University Counsellor.

As of date, the following are the Teams of the Mental Health Army along with the Team Leads:

- ★ Coordination Team: Vinit Dhage
- ★ Management Team: Ananya Srivastava
- ★ Advertising Team: Jayesh Taneja
- ★ Creative Team: Prachita Agarwal

NATIONAL PANEL DISCUSSION ON MENTAL HEALTH IN AN UNEQUAL WORLD

October 10, 2021 Listening to enlightening perspectives from our esteemed panellists from diverse disciplines

Dr. Stalin: Good social relations leading to positive mental health.

Dr. Kumar: Impact of pandemic on mental health; social distancing to social isolation; Factors contributing to an unequal world. Ms Ritu: Gap between a developed and underdeveloped society; how comparison affects mental health.

Ms. Aruna: Risk of mental health is unequally distributed; mental health is a matter of public health; provided solutions.

Dr. Dipti: Spoke about the core 'you and me'; coping with developmental stages and the contribution of the society; importance of parenting training; emotional tolerance "accepting ourselves".

Therapeutic Thursdays

'Therapeutic Thursdays' is the recurring event hosted by the Mental Health Army. This is a weekly chat session, where the university counsellor is available for a bunch of interested students to talk. Every week according to the availability this session is conducted and it is the free space, a judgement free zone where people can come & talk about their emotions. In the army we say “speaking is better than overthinking, we are here to listen”. So if it’s a Thursday, let’s make a group call.

Social Media Initiatives

For the purpose of creating engagement amongst the student body and amplifying the presence of the mental health initiatives undertaken by the Mental Health Army, Instagram was the preferred mode of communication.

August 2021

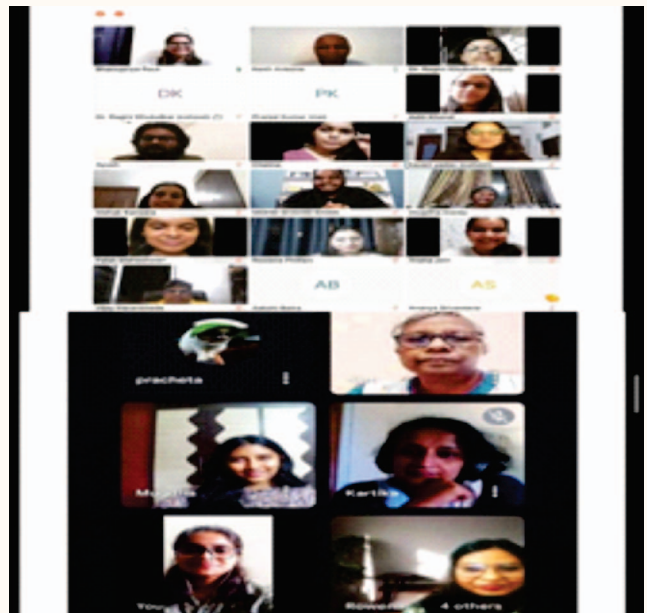

As the pandemic had forced everyone to go into online mode, the Mental Health Army wasn’t far behind. It transformed itself to fit in the online perspective as that was time it was much needed ‘Therapeutic Thursday calls’ were group calls conducted for the students of the university with our counsellor-Mrs Rowena Phillips. To raise awareness regarding the initiative, various posts were made.

September 2021

- The posts were primarily quotes comprising daily thoughts, struggles and stories from famous personalities helping the students get more comfortable in knowing that they are not alone.
- With World Suicide Prevention Day approaching, a series of informative posts, census relating to suicides, its reasons, known stigmas were posted to spread awareness.
- On September 10 2021 - ‘World Suicide Prevention Day’ - a guest webinar was arranged with a motivational speaker and Paralympics coach Keith Antoine.
- A virtual health camp was conducted with two guest Psychologists, Dr Christian and Dr Jamdar. The psychologists took one-on-one sessions with the students and addressed various challenges posed by them.

- Reels contest with the theme “Mental health being” and a picture and caption contest with the theme “What makes you alive?” was introduced by the committee for the students to value the little moments in their lives. Various entries were made by the students and were posted to the official handle of the Mental Health Army’s Instagram handle.

October 2021

- The committee took out an interesting initiative with posting about the movies which changed the portrayal of mental illness in people’s minds.
- The posts consisted of a three-picture series with quotes and learnings from particular scenes of a movie.

- The Mental Health Team held a National Panel discussion on “Mental Health in an Unequal World” with various panellists spoke about the social, economic and political factors that influenced mental health of individuals and communities.
- October is also World Breast Cancer Awareness Month wherein posts were made regarding the importance of testing and census of Breast Cancer with captions detailing the symbolism of the pink ribbon representing Breast Cancer.

March 2021

March 8, 2021 is celebrated as the International Women's Day all around the world celebrating women with their achievements, stories, struggles and joys.

10. UNIVERSITY PUBLICATIONS

Contemporary Law Review (CLPR)

MNLU, Contemporary Law Review (CLR) Volume 5 Number I: MNLU

Contemporary Law Review (CLR) is a biannual, faculty-run, blind peer-reviewed flagship journal of Maharashtra National Law University, Nagpur bearing the International Standard Serial Number (ISSN) 2581-7582 and RNI No. MAHENG/2018/ 76048. MNLU, CLR has recently been listed under the UGC CARE List under Serial No. 72 in Group I journals.

CLR deals with contemporary, unresolved and unsettled legal issues in and around the world which are brought into light by the legal academia and allied disciplines. CLR focuses on issues that predominantly affect society. It aims to serve those who seek holistic insight into the latest legal developments in this contemporary era. The journal seeks to provide a platform for legal researchers, scholars, students, academicians, administrators, members of the bar and the bench, policymakers and members of civil society to high spot on the latest debates and sprouting conversations and tries to give insights on the concomitant matters affecting the society.

CLR has taken tremendous leaps forward in interdisciplinary legal research. This is due, in great part, to the laudable contributions of stalwart academicians of Indian legal education, scholars and professionals. The journal thrusts to new dimensions and keeps on expanding its horizon to supplement the brain seeds of readers and pushes them to grow into a tree. The university follows a rigorous and arduous selection and editing process to ensure the standard and quality of the journal. CLR has published five volumes in seven issues so far.

The latest issue of MNLU, CLR Volume 5 Number I, was released by Hon'ble Shri Justice Bhushan R. Gavai, Judge, Supreme Court of India and Chancellor of the University on February 13, 2022 along with Hon'ble Shri Justice Sunil B.
